Erna also had a quiz, answers to which were nursery rhymes or Turkey.

Hazel served a delightful smorgasbord at refreshment time - different and most tasty.

Erna Lentman, Secy

80th Anniversary Picnic - June 18 - 1982

Annual Mother's Day Picnic was held at North Liberty, United Methodist Church, instead of at Virginia Henderson's home, as had been planned, due to threatening rain. Virginia's home was the scene of the organization of Whip-Poor-Will in 1902, and through the years Virginia has been very generous in offering her home for the picnic. Fifty-eight adults and nine children were present, for the usual sumptuous dinner, served promptly at 12:30. Following eating and visiting, President Beth Saxton called the meeting to order. Minutes of 1981 Picnic were read by Leij Erma Sentman. Secretary then read correspondence from Gretchen Harshberger, Joana Linsinger, Virginia Mohr, Geneva Bossler, Joan Ancisny, Adeline Cippers, and Sylvia Stens's daughter Vera Pearson. (Vera told of her mother's death in May)

Edith Ranchow and Vera Karew were in charge of memorials for members who had passed away during the last year. Vera had written a memorial to Effie^{Myers} which was read by Ruth Linsinger. Edith read memorials to Inez Stoner, Erma Sentman read memorial to Sylvia Stens, Edith read memorials for Ruth Potter and Juanita Myers. Preceding the reading of memorials, Vera had placed a carnation for each of these deceased, as Edith read the names, in the vase of carnations honoring all deceased members in the past 80 years.

At this time, President asked those people present who were direct descendants of Charter members to stand and be recognized. These included Virginia Wendusht, daughter of Maude Young Ball, Janet Nimrod, daughter of Blanche Young Myers, Janet's daughter and granddaughter Bath + Meredith Sherman, Dorothy Young Rath and Lillian Young Whiting, niece of ~~Maude~~ Maude + Blanche Young.

Honoring everyone with an artificial carnation were Margaret Probasco and Rita Jensen. This was done by categories - those who had attended 50 picnics, were Mabel Stoner, Oda Anderson, Edith Ranshaw, Vera Larew + Bess Myers. Next category ^{grandchildren} then newer people, daughters, etc, so that eventually everyone received a carnation.

Program Committee Ellen Colony and Elizabeth Triplett conducted a style show of Wedding dresses, for which Elona Colony set the mood by playing Wedding music on the piano. Models were Vera Larew who wore her own gown from the year 1925, Elona Colony, her own from 1929, Janet Tiffany her own from 1968, Peg Colony her own from 1955, Darla Colony wore Margaret Probasco's dress from 1955, Janet Tiffany wore Elizabeth Triplett's dress from 1931, Holly Kellogg wore her own from 1978, Beth Saxton carried hers of 1974, several pictures were also shown.

July Sing-A-Long
1983430 - YOU'RE A GRAND OLD FLAG

You're a grand old flag,
 You're a high flying flag,
 And forever in peace may you wave,
 You're the emblem of the land I love,
 The home of the free and the brave.
 Every heart beats true,
 For the Red, White and Blue,
 Where there's never a boast or a brag,
 Should auld acquaintance be forgot?
 Keep your eye on the Grand Old Flag.

5 - AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL

O beautiful for spacious skies,
 For amber waves of grain
 For purple mountain majesties
 Above the fruited plain.
 America! America!
 God shed his grace on thee,
 And crown thy good with brotherhood
 From sea to shining sea!

O beautiful for patriot dream
 That sees beyond the years,
 Thine alabaster cities gleam
 Undim'd by human tears,
 America! America!
 God shed his grace on thee,
 And crown thy good with brotherhood
 From sea to shining sea!

Yankie Doodle

I'm a Yankie Doodle dandy, A Yankie doodle, do or die.
 A real live nephew of my uncle Sam, born on the 4th of July.
 I've got a Yankie Doodle sweetheart, she's my Yankie Doodle joy.
 Yankie Doodle came to London, just to ride the ponies, I am the Yankie
 Doodle boy.

THIS IS MY COUNTRY!

What difference if I hail from North or South, or from the East or West?
 My heart is filled with love for all of these.
 I only know I swell with pride, and deep within my breast
 I thrill to see "old Glory" paint the breeze!

This is my county! Land of my birth.
 This is my country! Grandest on earth!
 I pledge thee my allegiance, America the bold.
 For this is my country, to have and to hold!

With hand upon my heart I thank the Lord for this, my native land,
 For all I love is here within her gates.
 My soul is rooted deeply in the soil on which I stand,
 For these are mine, My own U-NIT-ED States! (Repeat Chorus)

7 - AMERICA

My country 'tis of thee,
 Sweet land of liberty,
 Of thee I sing;
 Land where my fathers died,
 Land of the pilgrims' pride,
 From ev-'ry mountain side -
 Let freedom ring.

My native country, thee,
 Land of the noble free,
 Thy name I love;
 I love thy rocks and rills,
 Thy woods and templed hills;
 My heart with rapture thrills,
 Like that above.

Our fathers. God, to thee,
 Author of liberty,
 To thee we sing;
 Long may our land be bright,
 With freedom's holy light;
 Protect us by thy might,
 Great God, our King.

Mother's Day Picnic 1985

We met on Saturday June 15, 1985 at the United Methodist Church in North Liberty. This was the first time the Mother's Day Picnic was held on a day other than the traditional June 18th, the reason being so more of the women who work could attend. The picnic potluck began at 12:30 PM with a lot of good food and fellowship. There were thirty-seven people in attendance.

At 1:30, President Janet Tiffany called the meeting to order. Kay Molling, acting secretary, read the minutes from last year's picnic as well as correspondence from the following people: Janet Meyers Nimrod, Elsie Martin, Margaret Schweigler, Gretchen Harshbarger, Geneva Colony Fossler, Mary Young (Holly Kellogg's mother), Virginia Werle, Margaret Baldwin, Marie Peterson, Ruth Colony, Dorothy Young Rathe, Oda Anderson, and Helen Davis. (and Mary Fox)

The program for honoring mothers was presented by Margaret Probasco and Rita Jensen. They gave small gifts to a wide range of "honorees" including the one that traveled the farthest, the one that works on her own car, the one with the most children under 10, the one with the most trouble with arthritis and many more.

The memorial to deceased mothers was presented by Erma Sentman. She shared two readings, "The Mystery and "Remember" and placed a white carnation in a vase to honor each deceased mother. Those honored were Minnie Myers Lill, Adeline Cippera, and Henrietta Jansa.

The speaker for the picnic was Bonita Colony, who told us about life in Alaska.
